DAYTON, Ohio, January 28, 1972 --- The University of Dayton's Special Sessions Department is sponsoring four new programs starting in the month of February. The programs will be "Principals of Heat Treating," "Marriage Guidance," "Management for First Line Supervisors," and "Successful Husband-Wife Relationships."

The first program, "Principals of Heat Treating," will begin on February 14, and run for fifteen sessions on Monday evenings from 7:30 to 9:15 p.m. The course is a Metals Engineering Institute Course, and is co-sponsored by the Dayton Chapter of the American Society for Metals. It is an introductory and review course for the technician through the graduate engineer, and all meetings will be in Kennedy Union Room 331. Fees will be $75.00 for ASM members, and $80.00 for non-members. Instructor for the program is Dr. James Cordea, Supervising Research Metallurgist, Armco Steel Corporation.

Then for those contemplating marriage in the near future, as well as for those already married, there will be a Marriage Guidance program beginning on Thursday, February 17, 1972. There will be six sessions on Thursdays, from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. in Sherman Hall room 113. Instructors will be Rev. Norbert Burns, S.M., Professor Joseph Rosa, Mr. Patrick Flanagan, Mr. Carl Davis, and Mr. Marvin J. Brown, Dr. James F. Leary, M.D., and panels of married couples. Course fees will be $5.00 for couple, $3.00 per person, and $1.00 for a single lecture.

Dr. James A. Buckenmeyer, Associate Professor of Business Management, University of Dayton, will lecture on Tuesday Evenings beginning on February 29, 1972, on Management for First Line Supervisors. The eight sessions are to be held from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. in Kennedy Union room 310. The course is primarily intended for the first line supervisor. As such, it has an emphasis on the basic management principles which are the essential tools for good supervision. The fee is $55.00.

Also on Tuesdays, The University is sponsoring a specialized short course on a Successful Husband-Wife Relationship, conducted by Rev. Norbert Burns, S.M. The six sessions will begin on February 29, 1972, from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. in Sherman Hall room 216. This lecture and discussion series is designed to help married people explore ways and means to growth in their love relationship. Fees for the course are $15.00 and $20.00 per couple.
